Research Scholars Program

The Research Scholars Program provides support to young men and women who are interested in pursuing a career in urologic research. In all, over 460 researchers have been granted research scholarships and awards through a variety of programs and fellowships. For more information on the Research Scholars Program, please visit auanet.org/research/research-funding/aqa-funding/research-scholar-awards.

NCS Annual Meeting

The North Central Section holds an annual meeting each fall to provide a forum for the communication of current knowledge and techniques regarding the treatment and diagnosis of bladder, prostate and kidney diseases. The meeting offers highly informative breakfast sessions, special guest lectures, podium and poster presentations, panel discussions, video presentations and the Bizarre and Interesting Cases session.

Communications

Membership Directory

NCS members have access to an online Membership Directory, which contains names, phone numbers and addresses of all NCS members. This valuable resource aids members in networking and keeping in communication with their colleagues.

Post-Convention Newsletter

Following the annual meeting, the NCS publishes a Post-Convention Newsletter which introduces NCS' new president and includes highlights of the meeting from the secretary, treasurer and past president. The newsletter also includes a state affairs update, which keeps urologists up to date with the ever-changing healthcare policies in the NCS states and how legislation will affect their practice.

Eblasts and Social Media

NCS sends important information on upcoming meetings including online registration, abstract deadlines and NCS programs as well as Section activities directly to your inbox. This information is also posted on the NCS Facebook and Twitter accounts.
